Nissan Motor Co., Ltd.

Executive Vice President, Global Marketing and Sales, Zero Emission Vehicle and Battery Business; Chairman of Management Committee for Japan/A&O (Japan, Asia, Oceania Business); Nissan Motor Co., Ltd.; Yokohama, Japan

Daniele Schillaci is head of global sales and marketing and also the Zero Emission Vehicle and Battery Business for Nissan Motor Co., Ltd. (NML). He is responsible for all of the corporation's brands – Nissan, Datsun and Infiniti – where his focus is to elevate brand building and positioning for each one. He is focused on making each brand more attractive and more customer-orientated. Schillaci also serves as the chairman of the Management Committee for the Japan and Asia and Oceania regions and oversees operation – including manufacturing, engineering, design, sales and marketing, administration, and finance – in these regions.

As part of this role, Schillaci serves as the leading company spokesperson to tell the story of Nissan Intelligent Mobility, which is Nissan's vision to deliver more autonomy, more electrification and more connectivity to move people to a better world. Under the vision of Nissan's Intelligent Mobility, Schillaci's other focus is on increasing Nissan's sales and establishing an industry leading sales organization.

Schillaci began his career at Renault in 1993, where he spent seven years, and he moved to Fiat in 2001 as head of the company's subsidiary brand, Alfa Romeo, before moving on to Toyota.

At Toyota, Schillaci helped to develop more markets in Europe and was also responsible for operations for the Lexus brand. In 2010, he became President and Chief Executive Officer of the French division of the company, and in 2012, he became Senior Vice President for Sales and Marketing of Toyota Motor Europe, before leaving the company to join NML in July 2015.

Schillaci studied at the Polytechnic University of Milan in 1993 and became an engineer in new industrial technologies & business management. He participated in the CEDEP Program, INSEAD, 1996 and the Executive Development Program at the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania in 2008.

He enjoys spending time with his wife, exploring Japan, playing tennis and reading. Schillaci is a fan of the GT-R.

Schillaci speaks French, Italian, English, and Spanish.
